EDITORS' MESSAGE

May 1965 will close the doors on our high school education but will open the doors to further education and to greater and broader opportunities. Sad at heart, we regret to leave "dear ole Dunbar" and our loyal instructors.

As graduating seniors, we shall never forget the exciting and thrilling moments spent here. Through our annual, we hope to recapture the pleasures and joys of our high school days and to rediscover our past experiences.

This annual serves as a symbol of appreciation and gratitude to you, our teachers, parents, friends, and all other who contributed. We take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks to everyone.

Dunbar Parent-Teacher Association

We, the class of 1965, dedicate this yearbook in honor of the Dunbar Parent-Teacher Association. This dedication comes as an expression of appreciation and gratitude for your faithful and willing help.

This organization represents all the parents, teachers, and friends, who have worked with us so hard during our twelve years of school. You have worked "above and beyond the call of duty". At times, when we became temporarily discouraged, you inspired us to keep the "spark of learning" shining bright within our minds. You sacrificed and labored long and hard that we might be able to continue until we reached this goal.

We felt that in dedicating our yearbook to the Dunbar Parent-Teacher Association, we would be able to express our gratitude to everyone.

So, we the class of 1965, in honor and esteem, simply and graciously say "Thank You."

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

I congratulate you for working so faithfully and diligently to make the Annual a success. The parents, too, are to be commended for their efforts in your behalf. I hope you will always realize that all worth-while achievements come as a result of time and effort well-planned and used. Moreover, your mile post in education and the Annual were not reached by a single effort; much achievement of a necessity was wrought by the combined work, ideals, and aspirations of all concerned.

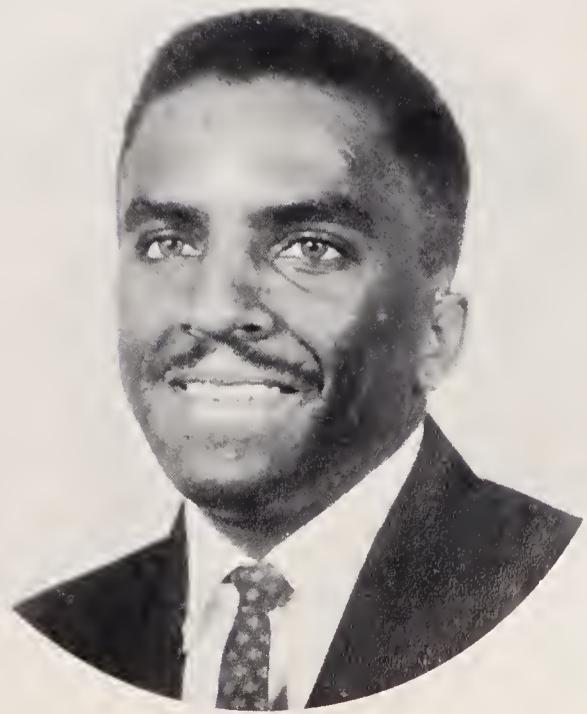

I hope your experiences here at this institution will serve you well and will further help to promote you to the goals and expectancy of a fuller life. Keep the faith and remember well some of the things we tried hard to teach you.

THANATOPSIS

William Cullen Bryant

So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry slave at night,
Scourged to this dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

CLASS POEM

We have spent these years together
In anticipation of a certain day.
But what we earn for our labor
Will be known in the month of May.

The days are swiftly passing,
Our time to part draws near.
Yet, we are all very happy
And full of much good cheer.

We give a special thanks to our preachers.
They have attended our moral needs.
And to our parents and teachers,
We wish good luck and Godspeed.

The time has come for us to go
And leave "Ole Dunbar High,"
But to the classes that follow us,
We leave the will to always try.

By
Fannie Foster

CLASS SONG

(Tune: Auld Lang Syne)

Dear Alma Mater, Dunbar High
We must bid you good-bye.
Our memories are full of joy
That none can e'er destroy.

Although we cannot tarry here,
We'll always love you dear.
With sadden hearts we bid farewell,
Dear Dunbar we love thee well.

Hail, Alma Mater, Dunbar High,
On you we can rely.
Though school days are
now past and gone,
Our faith will linger on.
